Item(s) Discussed: Agricultural District Applications

The Committee renewed consideration of two applications to the county Agricultural District, which had been reserved from the October 1, 2007 Committee meeting.

The Committee first considered the application for the Winery at St. George. The Committee received input and discussed the application with various parties present, including the applicant, the applicant's attorney, Leg. Oros, persons associated with the proposed winery, and area residents, as well as from Ms. Wilkens and Mr. Kvinge. The Committee reserved action on the application, pending further consideration and discussion.

The Committee next considered the application for Sunhill Farms. The Committee discussed the application with the applicant, the applicant's attorney, Somers Supervisor Mary Beth Murphy, Ms. Wilkens, and Mr. Kvinge. The Committee reserved action on the application, pending further consideration and discussion.

Chair Abinanti adjourned the meeting at 5:05 pm.
